Digital Learning Resources for Gifted Students

Visit these sites for structures courses or other online learning opportunities:

- Byrdseed.tv – Free learning videos for students who are gifted
- Mensa for Kids - http://mensaforkids.org/
- Short Story Exploration Course for grades 7-12 – (youtube.com/user/lvangem, archived for later viewing)
- Advanced Placement Video Lessons - http://youtube.com/advancedplacement (begins in early April)
- Curiosities and Puzzlements - https://www.puzzlements.co/
- Khan Academy – Select the Courses link to find content based on the grade/classes in which your student is enrolled (not gifted specific, but very thorough) - https://www.khanacademy.org
- Hour of Code Courses - https://studio.code.org/courses
- Webquests - http://www.davidsongifted.org/search-database/topic/105100/entrytype/2

Printable Resources

These sites have lessons or activities that can be downloaded and printed for student use:

- Nancy Polette's Literature Guides – Free downloadable literature discussion guides for a variety of picture books and novels - http://www.nancypolette.com/litguides.asp
- Junior Great Books – Free downloadable short stories and discussion questions - https://www.greatbooks.org/open-educational-resources-dl/
- Michael Clay Thompson English/Grammar Samples – Vocabulary and grammar free downloads from his curriculum series - https://www.rfwp.com/pages/michael-clay-thompson/downloads/
- Odyssey of the Mind Spontaneous Problems – sites include directions for quick and fun creative problem solving activities using everyday items - https://nepaootm.com/spontaneous/ and https://www.odysseyofthemind.com/practice/default_cat.php?Id=2 (Google "odyssey of the mind spontaneous" for many more sites like these)
- Destination Imagination Instant Challenges – sites include directions for quick and fun creative problem solving activities using everyday items - https://www.destinationimagination.org/challenge-program/resource-library/
- Math Olympiad – Click on the General Information link to see Samples and Problem of the Month for printable complex math problems for students in upper elementary and middle school - https://www.moems.org
- Math Counts – Downloadable copies of complex math problems used in previous Math Counts competitions for middle school students - https://www.mathcounts.org/programs/competition-series/past-competitions
- Math Plus Academy Mathematical Thinking Games eBook - http://www.mathplusacademy.com/resources/
- Visit www.piecesoflearning.com, www.prufrockpress.com, www.freespiritpress.com , and www.mindware.com for teaching resources. Many books have free sample pages you can download.

List of Lists

Visit these sites for lists of other learning activities not listed here:

- CCS Resource Specialists List of Resources - https://docs.google.com/document/d/1BJ_IRXyEdDNKR_-qNLDiBWtq-r_S-nyHa3x3a2RgP4s/edit
- Kentucky Association of Gifted Education List of Virtual Support Materials - https://docs.google.com/document/d/1UbaobL2ymO4_MW4N0eVvdBEfMPLyGaH7KipH27Onmg0/preview
- Learning at Home websites and activities - http://www.giftedguru.com/learning-at-home/
- Amazing Educational Resources List of Free Subscriptions - http://www.amazingeducationalresources.com
- Exquisite Minds Gifted Resource List (includes many free online and downloadable learning options) - https://www.exquisite-minds.com/gifted-resources-lessons-and-curriculum/
- Lesson Plans and Resources for Teaching Gifted Students – http://www.eds-resources.com/edgifted.html#resources
- Gifted Sources - http://www.giftedsources.com